Part of the Legacy Collection in Everett's Preserve, the Brinkley is a thoughtfully designed quick move-in home currently under construction on Homesite 21. Offering 3,778 square feet, four bedrooms, four full baths and two half baths, this spacious floor plan features a first-floor primary suite and generous living and entertaining spaces designed to balance everyday comfort with elevated style. Set within Everett's Preserve in Clayton, NC, the Brinkley offers the space, craftsmanship and attention to detail that define a Homes by Dickerson home.

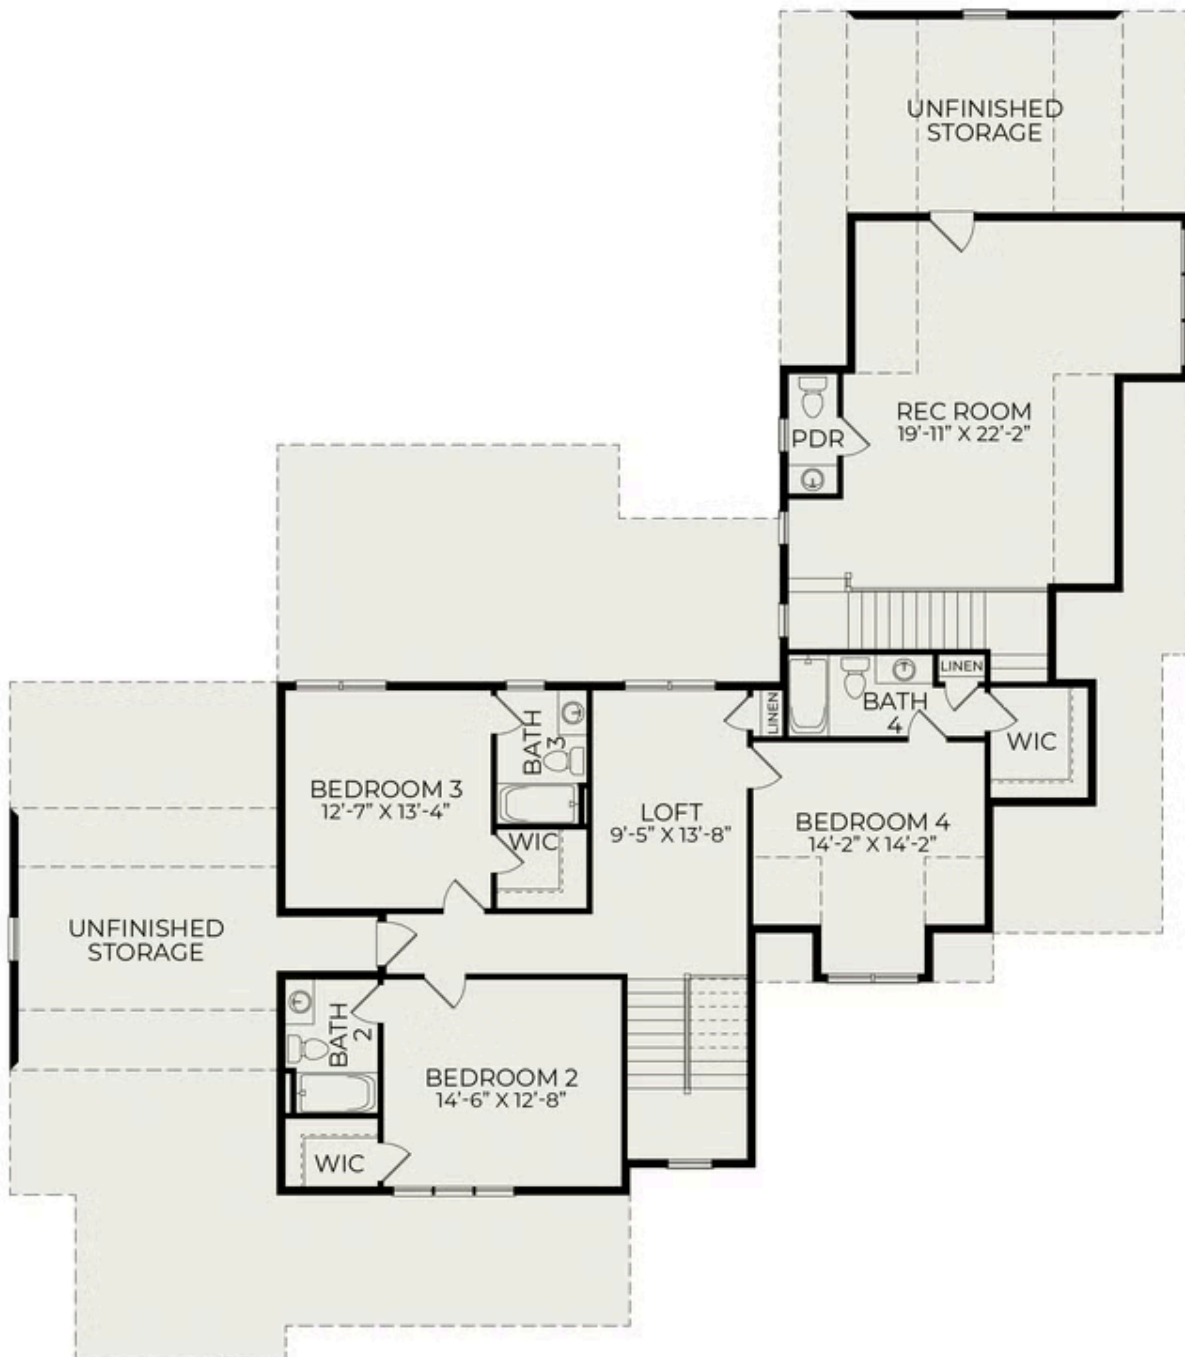

As a quick move-in home, the Brinkley is already under construction, offering a quicker path to your new home while still delivering a thoughtfully designer-curated experience. Our professional design team has carefully selected finishes, materials and details to create a cohesive home that feels both timeless and distinctive. For buyers searching for a new construction home in Clayton, NC without starting the building process from the beginning, the Brinkley offers an exceptional opportunity to make Everett's Preserve home sooner.
