Nestled in the heart of Pinehurst, The Lynford Cottage welcomes you home with charming gabled rooflines and a warm, storybook facade that feels like it's always been there. Step through the arched front door into a foyer that flows effortlessly into a sun-filled family room, anchored by a dining space made for gathering and a chef-inspired kitchen complete with a working scullery to keep everyday life beautifully organized. A main-level primary suite offers a true retreat, boasting a spa-like bath and an expansive walk-in closet, while a private study and welcoming mudroom make working from home and coming home effortless. Just off the kitchen, an oversized screened porch invites morning coffee and evening unwinding in every season. Upstairs, three additional bedrooms each enjoy their own walk-in closet, complemented by a spacious loft-style storage area ready for your finishing touches. A dedicated playroom with a wet bar creates the perfect hideaway for movie nights, game days, or quiet weekend mornings. With a two-car garage, covered front porch, and thoughtful design at every turn, this home balances timeless character with modern-day livability. The Lynford Cottage isn't just a floor plan; it's a place to put down roots. Come experience the warmth of Pinehurst living for yourself.
