Tucked within the coveted, brand-new enclave of Blanton's Grove inside Hasentree, the Claremont plan is a masterful balance of gracious elegance and everyday livability. From the moment you arrive, there's a sense of arrival, a home designed to welcome, to gather, and to impress without ever feeling ostentatious. The main-floor primary suite offers a true retreat, with a spa-caliber bath and generous closet space just steps from the laundry and mud room for effortless daily living. At the heart of the home, the kitchen, family room, and scullery flow together seamlessly, designed for both quiet mornings and lively entertaining. A screened porch and grilling porch extend the living space outdoors, ideal for savoring long Carolina evenings. A main-level guest suite and dedicated study bring rare flexibility, whether for visiting family or a refined space to work from home. Upstairs, two additional bedroom suites, a spacious recreation room, and a dedicated exercise room offer room to grow, unwind, and everything in between. The Claremont isn't just a floor plan, it's an invitation to live exceptionally within one of Wake Forest's most sought-after communities.
