The Middleton is a four bedroom, two-story home that makes the most of every square foot without ever feeling tight. With the primary suite tucked privately on the main floor and three bedrooms upstairs, it's a layout that works just as well for a growing family as it does for empty nesters. The foyer opens to a bright family room and kitchen anchored by a generous island, walk-in pantry, and adjacent bar, with a screened porch just off the dining area for easy indoor-outdoor living. The main-floor primary suite features a spa-style bath, dual vanities, and an oversized walk-in closet, while upstairs you'll find three additional bedrooms (one that doubles beautifully as a rec room), two full baths, a loft, and generous walk-in storage. Thoughtful touches like a drop zone off the garage,
